

MELBOURNE
RUDOLF STEINER SCHOOL

VCE Classroom music teacher - 0.6 FTE Melbourne Rudolf Steiner School

The Melbourne Rudolf Steiner School is a well-established K-12 co-educational, non-denominational Steiner school situated in the outer eastern suburb of Warranwood, Victoria 3134.

We are seeking an enthusiastic and committed teacher with a performing background to teach VCE Music Performance and Music Investigation to our year 11 and 12 VCE music students.

Roles include:

- Teaching and co ordination of Units 1-4 VCE Music Performance and Investigation;
- Participation in staff meetings and other staff activities/Professional development
-

Requirements:

- Familiarity with the current VCE Music Performance and Investigation curricula;
- An understanding of performance technique on an instrument and or voice;
- A willingness to engage with the MRSS teaching staff and broader community;
- Basic knowledge of notation software and other IT skills is desirable.
- Knowledge and/or experience of Steiner education is preferable though not a pre-requisite.

Applicants must have a sound understanding of, and commitment to, current Child Safety Standards and a current Working with Children Check is essential.

Only people with the right to work in this country may apply for this position.

Please send applications in writing or via email, including your curriculum vitae and the names and contact details of two professional referees, before 3.00pm Wednesday December the 19th 2018 to:

Attn: Music Group
Melbourne Rudolf Steiner School
213 Wonga Road, Warranwood, Vic 3134
Australia

Or email: Attn: Music Group
office@mrss.com.au